ASSISTANT FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDER

Announcement #FPD 18-002

(Position Subject to Funding Availability)

The Office of the Federal Public Defender for the District of Columbia has an opening for an Assistant Federal Public Defender. Assistant Federal Public Defenders provide legal representation to indigent persons charged with federal criminal offenses at both the district court and appellate levels.

Applicants must be a member in good standing of a state bar. Applicants must have a commitment to the representation of indigent persons in addition to excellent writing, legal research and advocacy skills. Applicants must also possess the ability to communicate effectively with clients, witnesses, staff, colleagues, and other individuals that they will come into contact with as part of their employment. A reputation for integrity and commitment to the representation of those unable to afford counsel are qualities which are sought for this position. In addition, experience in federal court and working knowledge of the federal sentencing guidelines and of federal criminal law are also preferred. One or more positions may be filled from this announcement - - either a trial attorney or an appellate attorney.

This is a full-time position with federal salary and benefits commensurate with experience, qualifications, and education. Employees are considered at-will and are not covered by the Civil Service Reform Act. Submit a resume with cover letter to:
